

Consultation on draft Unacceptable Behaviours Policy – Appendix

Help and Support

Complainants and those subject to a complaint under the Unacceptable Behaviours Policy may benefit from help and support during the process. A range of sources of support may be accessed through the Directory of services to help improve mental health and emotional wellbeing.

Members and their employees may avail of Inspire Workplace Services, which provides a range of welfare services and support. Further information is available on the Members' Portal.

Assembly Commission employees may also avail of Inspire Workplace Services and other internal support as outlined on the staff intranet (AssISt).
